

CornRoots Leadership Academy is designed to prepare you to be involved in the grassroots advocacy efforts of the Missouri Corn Growers Association (MCGA). There are regulations and legislation coming from our state and federal capitol's that could impact your farm. CornRoots will update you on these issues and teach you how to influence your elected officials, motivate other growers and interact with the media. Upon graduation, you will be MCGA's first call when an urgent policy or regulatory issue arises. Grower involvement is the only way to successfully navigate and overcome these issues. We hope you answer the call to lead and engage.

Please complete and answer all of questions on this form. All applications MUST be typed into this form. If you have questions or problems regarding this application, please contact the Missouri Corn office.

Full Name: _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

Email (checked regularly): _____

Cell Phone: _____ Are you a member of MCGA?    YES    NO

Is farming your primary occupation?    YES    NO

If yes, briefly describe your farming operation. If no, briefly describe your farming experience.

As you think of the next 5 years, what do you see being the most critical issues for corn farmers?

What leadership experiences have you had? Include any legislative or political experience.

What social media platforms do you use?

_____

Have you ever participated in a radio or television interview?    YES    NO

If you would like more information, or would like to talk to a past CornRoots participant, contact Missouri Corn Director of Grower Engagement Katie Marshall at (800) 827-4181 or kmarshall@mocorn.org.