

MISSOURI CORNROOTS LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

CornRoots Leadership Academy is a program geared toward corn producers who are interested in developing their leadership skills and influencing the policy process. Applications for the twelfth CornRoots class must be submitted by Nov. 11, 2022.

SESSION 1: DEC. 13-15, 2022 JEFFERSON CITY

- Communication and social media training
- Advocacy growth
- Personal development
- Ethanol plant, lock & dam tours

SESSION 2: JAN. 24-25, 2023 JEFFERSON CITY

- Industry visits with Missouri Department of Agriculture and Department of Natural Resources
- Grassroots lobbying at Missouri State Capitol
- Missouri Corn Growers Association Annual Meeting

SESSION 3: JULY 2023 WASHINGTON, D.C.

- Grassroots lobbying on Capitol Hill
- DelMarVa region farm tours
- Networking with fellow corn leadership groups
- National Corn meetings

APPLY Now!

Download an application at www.mocorn.org. Applications must be submitted to kmarshall@mocorn.org no later than Nov. 11, 2022. Questions can be directed to Katie Marshall at (573) 893-4181.

